Appendix B: Composite PA TRAC Status Report for Participating Institutions as of March 12, 2014

Notes:

1. Program Search allows students to search for institutions by program of study. Degree program information is uploaded by each institution at least once year; PASSHE's Office of the Chancellor provides degree program information for the PASSHE universities.
2. Course Search allows students to search for institutions based upon specific course criteria. Institutions submit course extracts once a year.
3. Course Equivalency Search allows students to find out how specific courses taken at one college transfer to another college.
4. Transfer Agreements are articulation agreements that allow students to transfer in or out of a college, including P2P agreements.
5. College Profile is where a college provides institution-specific information to transfer students. Profile Views represents the total times a college's transfer profile has been viewed since January 16, 2009. Request Info Views represents the total times the "Request Information" page has been viewed since January 16, 2009. Requests for More Information are submitted electronically to the point of contact responsible for maintaining the institution's profile.
